MESSAGE

I have great pleasure to witness KTM 2022, the most successful PPP model of marketing in tourism, happening from 05-09 May at Kochi. At this juncture, when the tourism industry in Kerala takes off to a leap after a never before setback, KTM 2022 has absolute relevance. Undoubtedly, the previous editions of KTM have served its purpose, but KTM 2022 has a really distinctive role in positioning the industry back to its legacy.

The global tourism scenario has turned turtle in the backdrop of the pandemic, and the travellers characteristics have also changed significantly. We must address the challenges judiciously in order to bounce back to emergence and then to glory.

I hope KTM 2022 will be a game changer for Kerala tourism industry, and I wish a very fruitful business opportunity both to the buyers and sellers attend this magnificent event.

I Wish KTM 2022 every success.

Dear friends,

Kerala Travel Mart Society is gearing up for the 11th edition of Kerala Travel Mart. Since its inception, KTM has been a key player in promoting travel and tourism destinations across Kerala. KTM has successfully exhibited Kerala as a top destination for buyers and sellers both from domestic and international markets. The latest edition of KTM would be beneficial in reviving the domestic tourism sector from the setbacks due to the Covid19 pandemic. I believe that KTM 2022 would be the best of the editions that have happened so far and will provide innovative solutions to boost Kerala as the top tourist destination, exploiting its true potential. I am pleased to welcome you to Kerala for a productive and enjoyable travel trade show.

Baby Mathew

President
Kerala Travel Mart Society.

Dear friends,

Kerala Travel Mart is one of the biggest marts in the world. Having made its mark as the leading travel mart in the country, KTM has played a significant role in developing and promoting Kerala tourism both in domestic and international markets. In the post-Covid scenario, Kerala Travel Mart would be a harbinger of rejuvenation to Kerala's domestic tourism. I am sure the expo will bring together key players in the travel, tourism, and hospitality segment and devise innovative ways to revive our tourism sector in the post-Covid situation.

Thank you to all for your support in helping us.

The Kerala Travel Mart Society looks forward to KTM 2022 with great joy and excitement. Initial preparations made for this great event were unfortunately postponed several times due to various reasons. And at last, we are all set to conduct this prestigious event, thanks to the selfless efforts of many individuals and organizations. It brings me immense pride to be part of this excellent tourism bonanza, especially as it has been four years since such a tourism fair has been held in Kerala.

The Tourism sector, the largest industry in Kerala, is looking forward to this great event, which will uplift and momentum the entire tourism sector, which directly employs about ten lakhs people and indirectly employs about 15 lakhs people. Thank all my colleagues who have unitedly strived to make this event a huge success, and I wish all the best for the Kerala Travel Mart 2022.

Hello everyone.

Kerala Travel Mart, the most significant travel and tourism expo in Kerala, is happening this year. It is indeed a moment of utmost pride and pleasure for the Metro Media Group to be a crucial element of the fete. We are indebted to the Kerala Travel Mart Society Management Committee for allowing us to publish the KTM Sellers Handbook 2022.

We share our sincere gratitude to everyone who has helped us in our attempt to bring out the best.

We extend a special thanks to the officials at the Kerala Travel Mart Society and all our well-wishers who delivered us their resources time-bound, the correct data, and other media elements.

Their contribution was invaluable in materializing this handbook. We also thank all the advertisers of Metro Media Publications and our valued readers for making this a resounding success.

Thanks for the continued support and love.

Thanks & Regards

Kerala

A BEAUTIFUL LAND WITH TRANQUILITY AND ELEGANCE

India has always been known as a country of diversity, be it in terms of language, clothes, culture or even geographical backgrounds. Naturally, the huge scope to explore the land has always been a subject of great interest to people all across the globe. However, a complete tour of India might be physically quite taxing and might not be all encompassing since each different place offers its own sweet attractions. Be it the grandeur of the mighty Himalayas, the calmness of the vast Rajasthan deserts, the hearty welcome of the cultured east or the serenity of the south,

India can truly mesmerise and surprise one to the deepest core and fill the soul with unparalleled and unprecedented joy. The rich culture and tradition along with the aesthetic pleasure that one can find in every corner of India is just absent in any other part of the world and this makes India a rather exceptional tourist destination in both the Occidental and the Western eyes. Amongst its many magic, that of south India is a common one and naturally, tourists, from all over the universe, flock here all round the year and soak themselves in the pristine beauty of the nature.

Thiruvananthapuram

Located in the south-western tip of India, Thiruvananthapuram is bound by the Arabian Sea in the west and the state of Tamil Nadu in the east. Named after Anantha Padmanabha or Lord Vishnu, the city is home to many ancient temples. But the most popular landmark is the Sree Padmanabha Swamy Temple around which the city has been built on seven low hills. The wooded highlands of the Western Ghats on the eastern and north-eastern borders provide Thiruvananthapuram with some of its most enchanting picnic spots. A long shoreline with internationally renowned beaches, historic monuments, backwater stretches and a rich cultural heritage make this place a much sought-after tourist destination. Clean, fresh and green, Thiruvananthapuram, the capital of Kerala, is one of the most beautiful cities in the country. Referred to by Mahatma Gandhi as the “Evergreen city of India”, Trivandrum city is characterised by its undulating terrain of low coastal hills and green landscapes.

Kovalam

The beach town of Kovalam is literally the paradise of the South attracting tourists with its three famous beaches namely the Lighthouse Beach, the Hawah Beach and the Samudra Beach. There are plenty of leisure options at these beaches like sunbathing, swimming, herbal body toning massages, several special cultural programmes and catamaran cruising among others that truly make this place one of a kind. Kovalam Beach is well known not just for its natural beauty and its stunning sunset view, but also for the various entertainment programmes and adventure sports conducted on the beach regularly. Beach bonfire is one of the most entertaining and fun practices, be it with family or friends. Another aspect of Kovalam tourism is its holy pilgrimage of temples and shrines that have always been famous throughout the country.

Anantha Padmanabha Swamy Temple:

This temple is one of the most important sites for anyone who is on a pilgrimage. The principal deity, Lord Vishnu, is enshrined in the "Anantha Shayanam" posture, the eternal yogic, asleep on the serpent Adishesha. Sree Padmanabha Swamy is the tutelary deity of the royal family of Travancore.

Attukal Bhagavati Temple:

The Attukal Bhagavathy Temple, located in Aattukal, is one of the oldest shrines of South India and the presiding deity of the temple is Attukal Bhagavathy, who is believed to be an incarnation of Goddess Parvathi. Located at just 2 kms from Thiruvananthapuram, the temple is also popularly known as 'Sabarimala of Women'.

Juma Masjid:

It is one of the most famous mosques of Thiruvananthapuram and also throughout India which was constructed in the year 1813 when India was still under the colonial rule. Initially, the mosque was small and it was mainly constructed for the prayers of the Muslim soldiers in this part of the country. The mosque was later expanded with the advent of time and gradually came to be a prime destination for the Muslim community.

St. Joseph's Metropolitan Cathedral:

St. Joseph's Metropolitan Cathedral, Palayam, Trivandrum, (Palayam Palli) is the Cathedral Church of the Latin Archdiocese of Trivandrum. As history goes, this 140-year old grand monumental Gothic structure had a moderate beginning. The initial Church was constructed in 1873 as a parish church to look after the spiritual needs of a few Catholic military men and Catholic families who mainly migrated from the coastal regions of erstwhile Travancore state, comprising of the present Kanyakumari and Trivandrum Districts.

Poovar

Once a busy port, Poovar is today an isolated beach in parts that however, promises breathtaking views. Poovar is among those natural wonders where the Lake, River, Sea and Beach meet the land. The dream golden sand beach is enveloped by the most serene backwaters on two sides and opens out to the sea on one. The historical roots of Poovar are no less commanding, with its strong ties with the legendary King of the erstwhile Princely State of Travancore, the great Marthanda Varma Maharaja. The area is abundant in well-preserved local flora, hundreds of varieties of spices, exotic flowers complete with banana and coconut groves.

Ponmudi:

The Ponmudi experience starts with the journey itself, from Nedumangad, the nearest town. A narrow winding road takes one to the most arresting scenic view of the wide valleys, lush green surroundings, waterfalls, forest land, tea plantations and hairpin curves. Known to be one of the very few hill resorts close to the sea, this place is some 915 m above the sea level with a year round pleasant climate. The best season or months to visit Ponmudi are February, March, October, November, and December. Apart from the rich flora which consists of a variety of beautiful mountain flowers, wild orchids and butterflies, there is also a popular deer park that attracts the visitors all the same. Besides, there are various trekking and hiking options that are no less exciting.

Meenmutty Falls:

An interesting 2 km jungle trek from the foothill will lead one to the largest and most spectacular waterfall in the area, the Meenmutty Falls. A unique feature of this Meenmutty waterfalls is that the water rushes down from a height of nearly 1000 ft in three stages, presenting an amazing triple-decker effect. The cascading waterfall, however, does not provide a very favourable place for the fish to swim in and hence the name that roughly translates to 'where the fish are blocked'.

Agasthyamalai Biosphere Reserve:

The Agasthyamalai Biosphere Reserve is another of the rather popular wildlife reserves of the region. The reserve is notified under the Man and Biosphere Programme, launched by UNESCO and is thus a tourist hotspot.

Peppara Wildlife Sanctuary:

The Peppara Wildlife Sanctuary, established in the year 1938, is located on the outskirts of the city of Ponmudi and is popular for its dense and thick forest cover that surrounds the region. The sanctuary is a natural habitat to many wild animals like the Asian elephants, sambar, leopards, lion-tailed macaques etc., and some of the rare breeds of birds found here include Malabar the grey hornbills, white - bellied tree - pie, small sunbird, and so on.

Mankayam Waterfalls:

The entire area of the Mankayam falls is dominated by shrubberies and the lofty trees of the Shola forest kind. Apart from the two magnificent waterfalls, Mankayam is a good spring-board for trekking too. To reach the upper falls, one has to climb over large boulders and trek a bit through the forest. So it is mainly recommended for the adventurous lot. However, the waterfalls are magnificent and thoroughly enjoyable.

Shenduruny Wildlife Sanctuary

The Shenduruny Wildlife Sanctuary, located in the Kollam district of Kerala, derives its name from the Shenduruny tree which grows in abundance here. The sanctuary was established in 1984. There is an artificial lake in the center of the park formed by the Kulathupuzha River and Parappan dam. A trip to the sanctuary is a guaranteed way to recharge the mind and soul because of

MUST VISIT: Sree Chithra Art

Gallery:

This Art Gallery is a treat for any art lover as it features some wonderful rare collection of paintings by Raja Ravi Varma, Svetlova and Nicholas Roerich. An oriental collection consisting of paintings from China, Japan, Tibet and Bali is also there that offers a visual pleasure and forms a tribute to the art and culture of these countries.

Napier Museum:

The Napier Museum too has a rare collection of artifacts, bronze idols, ancient ornaments, temple chariots and ivory carvings that speaks volumes of India's rich and glorious past. Itself an exceptional piece of architecture, the Museum is named after the former Madras Governor General, John Napier and is also called the Government Art Museum. The Zoom which is just adjacent to the museum, is home to some 82 species of fauna from around the world.

Shanghumugham Beach

The vast stretch of white sand and the serene atmosphere, away from the bustling and madding crowd of the city, make Shankumugham Beach a rather well admired spot for all tourists. The sculpture of Jalakanyaka by the famous sculptor Kanayi Kunhiraman is an added attraction here. The famous Veli Tourist Village is also located just 1km from this Shanghumugham beach.

its picturesque surroundings and breath-taking views. Tourists can also go for a bit of nature walk to enjoy the aesthetics of the forest and get familiar with the wildlife. The sanctuary also offers many exciting activities like river crossing, valley crossing, mountain biking, rock climbing and lots more.

Padmanabhapuram Palace

Situated at Thuckalai, on the way to Kanyakumari, the Padmanabhapuram Palace is a well-preserved wooden palace dating back to the 16th century. Kerala's indigenous style of architecture can be witnessed in this old palace of the Rajas of the erstwhile Travancore. With Rosewood carvings, sculptured décor, 17th century murals, musical bow in mahogany, royal chairs with Chinese carvings, painted ceilings and rosewood and teak carved ceilings with 90 different floral designs, this palace is simply elegance and royalty of bygone India at its best.

Varkala Beach

The Varkala Beach is located about 51 km to the north of Thiruvananthapuram city in the Thiruvananthapuram district in south Kerala. Also known as the "Papanasam" beach (meaning 'redemption from sins'), this is the only place in south Kerala where a long stretch of red laterite cliffs can be found and from where you can have a spectacular view of the sunset. A dip in the holy waters across this beach is believed to purge the body of all impurities and the soul of all its sins.

Kollam

Known widely as the centre of the country's cashew trading and processing industry, Kollam is a historic town, thirty percent of which is covered by the renowned Ashtamudi Lake, making it the gateway to the magnificent backwaters of Kerala. The eight-hour boat trip between Kollam and Alappuzha is the longest and most enchanting experience on the backwaters. The momentous decision to introduce a new Malayalam era was taken at Kollam. Kollam has the nick name 'the Cashew Capital of the World' because of the abundance of cashew factories.

Kollam Beach

The Kollam Beach, also known as the Mahatma Gandhi Beach, was once a favorite settlement of the Portuguese, the Dutch and the English. This perfect beach setting offers a panoramic view of the Arabian Sea. A port city and once an active harbour for Chinese trade ships, Kollam Beach is also home to Chinese fishing nets, Chinese water pots and sampan-like boats seen even today.

Palaruvi Waterfalls

The Palaruvi Waterfalls is one of Kerala's most picturesque waterfalls, cascading down from a height of 300 feet. Apart from being a great visual treat for the tourists, the Palaruvi (meaning stream of milk) Waterfalls is also a rather popular trekking destination. The trekking covers about 5 kilometres of the area, through a landscape of forests, caves, streams and small waterfalls. Besides, it is the third highest waterfall seen in the River Kallada.

Thenmala Eco-Tourism

It is India's first planned eco-tourism destination that offers, among others, attractions like an invigorating boat ride in the Shenduruney Wildlife Sanctuary, a visit to the Deer Rehabilitation Centre, where one can have a fascinating look at a group of spotted deer, sambar deer and barking deer, that have been given protection after straying out from the forests. The project area also has tree top huts and children's eco-park, river-side treks, and battery powered vehicle rides through the forest, enabling one to sight and experience wildlife from a close distance.

Jatayu Nature Park

Jatayu Earth's Center or Jatayu Nature Park is a park and tourism centre at Chadayamangalam in Kollam district of Kerala. Designed by Rajiv Anchal, This rock-theme nature park is about 38 km (24 mi) away from Kollam and 46 km (29 mi) away from the state capital, Thiruvananthapuram. It is the first PPP tourism initiative in the state of Kerala under the BOT model. When open, Jatayu Nature Park will hold the distinction of having the world's largest bird sculpture (200 feet (61 m) long, 150 feet (46 m) broad, 70 feet (21 m) in height and having 15,000 square feet (1,400 m²) of floor area) of the great mythical bird Jatayu.

Munroe Island:

This island is surrounded by the backwaters of Ashtamudi Lake and Kallada River. The Munroe Island is named after a British Resident of the erstwhile Travancore State, named Colonel Munroe due to several integrated backwater regions in the area created by digging up canals.

Kottukkal Rock Cut Cave Temple:

The architecture of this temple is one of the finest and rarest, created by carvings done on a single huge rock. Also known as the Kottukal Kal Thrikovil Cave Temple, from a distance this architectural wonder gives the impression of a sleeping elephant. This rock cut temple represents the vibes of the ancient Indian culture and also the traditional and artistic excellence prevalent at that time. The temple has two square rooms with the main deity of Lord Ganapathy in between and three other deities that include Lord Siva in the form of Siva Lingam, Hanuman and Nandikeswara. A Mandapam (roof) in front of one of the rooms stands testimony to the skill of those who built this temple from a single piece of rock. The temple premise also has a well that never dries up. Kottukal is situated in the village of Kottukkal, near Anchal, Kollam district, South Kerala. 📍

Pathanamthitta

The Hindu pilgrim centre Sabarimala is situated in the Pathanamthitta district. As the main transport hub to Sabarimala, the town is known as the 'Pilgrim Capital of Kerala'

Gavi Eco-Tourism

The Gavi Eco-Tourism, a grand project and initiative of the Kerala Forest Development Corporation, has recently caught the attention of the tourists, mostly from European countries and has thus quickly become quite a favourite destination. Gavi, located in the Pathanamthitta district, offers a wide range of activities like trekking, wildlife watching, outdoor camping in specially built tents and night safaris. The famous pilgrim destination, Sabarimala is just a short trek from Gavi and is thus mostly part of a package tour. For those interested in observing the nocturnal wildlife, night safaris to Kullur, Gavi Pullumedu, Kochu Pampa, etc. is a must along with the most unique feature of Gavi- camping in the forests. Pitch a tent in the camping site, which is a rarity in many Indian forests and feel the presence of wildlife in the middle of nowhere, an experience of a lifetime that cannot be explained in words. There are also tree top houses where one can enjoy the avian life to the fullest.

Aranmula:

Aranmula is a small village in the Pathanamthitta district of Kerala. The place is world famous for Aranmula Kannadi (metal mirror), crafted by specialized artisans that are in the list of UN heritage property. The Aranmula place is also famous for the 'Aranmula Uthridathi boat race' which is conducted every year on Uthridathi Day, as part of the religious festival of the nearby 'Parthasarathi' temple. This boat race is not simply a sports event but a religious one connected to the rituals of Parthaswarthi Temple. The Parthaswarthi Temple is a very ancient temple after the name of Lord Krishna (Sarathi of Arjun-Parthan). This temple also has a special importance in connection with the Sabarimala pilgrimage.

Vasthu Vidya Gurukulam:

The famous Vasthu vidya Gurukulam, a school conducted by the State Cultural is the ancient science of Indian architecture and is a pure and ethnic expression of Indian socio-cultural heritage. The gurukulam even has a consultancy wing for designs and constructions based on the glorious principles of vasthuvudya.

Konni

Located in the district of Pathanamthitta, Konni is a major centre of tourist attraction in Kerala attracting visitors in large numbers all through the year. Also it is a popular and one of the training centres for elephants in Kerala. An afforested village in the state of Kerala in South India, Konni is situated on the bank of the mighty Achencoil river and has a long and rich history of man-forest interface. The vast expanse of forests of Western Ghats in the backgrounds is crisscrossed by the numerous small streams and rivulets, which add to the exceptional scenic beauty of the landscape.

MUST VISIT:

Sabarimala:

One of the popular pilgrim centres in India, the hill shrine of Sabarimala seeks the blessings of its presiding deity - Lord Ayyappa or Swami Ayyappan. One of the best things about the temple at Sabarimala is that, it does not have any restrictions in place, based on religion, caste or creed and is now an international icon for communal harmony in Kerala. The shrine is also visited by devotees from various Asian countries like Russia as well as other foreign countries in Europe and U.S.A. It is thus a vast ocean of humanity that one can witness during the festival seasons at Sabarimala.

Perunthenaruvi waterfalls:

The Perunthenaruvi waterfall is located in the dense Sabarimala forest area. Great many bees, from in the adjacent woods, have transformed this place to a Kingdom of beehives. Naturally, the stream flowing through this area came to be called the great honey stream - 'Perunthenaruvi' in local vernacular. After splashing down as a waterfall, this honey stream, further down its course, runs into River Pampa. Mornings are usually the best time to visit here as the strong sunshine tends to make the rocks hot. Perunthenaruvi is a natural choice for a picnic spot due to its secluded feel as the place rarely gets crowded. Keep your cameras handy because the picture perfect Perumthenaruvi is also a great spot for amazing photo shoots. 📷

— Alappuzha —

Alappuzha, also referred to as the 'Venice of the East' by the travelers from across the globe, is caressed by the Arabian Sea in the west and a huge network of lakes, lagoons and freshwater rivers crisscrossing it which ultimately make this place a shelter for some unique animals and birds. Owing to its proximity to the sea, the place is quite famous for boat races and beaches. The singularity of this land, however, lies in the name of this area -Kuttanad- a land of lush green paddy fields, promptly giving it the title, the 'Rice Bowl of Kerala'. In fact, it is one of the few places in the world where farming is done below sea level. The backwaters come alive in the month of August every year during the annual Nehru Trophy Boat Race when the long snake boats battle it out on the waters for the coveted trophy. Kuttanad, located in the heart of the backwaters is a vast area of naturally reclaimed land that is separated by dikes a few feet above the water.

MUST VISIT:

Karumadi Kuttan:

Karumadi Kuttan, a Buddhist pilgrim centre, is located about 5 km east of Ambalapuzha in Alappuzha. Many fascinating legends are associated with this 11th century statue of Lord Buddha which is protected by the State Archaeological Department. The locals regard the Karumadikuttan with affection and he is credited with many healing powers.

Pathiramanal:

A small island known for its scenic beauty, it is also a favourite haunt of rare migratory birds. The Pathiramanal island, in the middle of Lake Vembanad, is also known as Ananda Padmanabhan Thoppu and Pathira Thoppu. It comes under the Cherthala Taluk of Alappuzha district.

Krishnapuram Palace

The Krishnapuram Palace is a rare specimen of the Kerala style of architecture, complete with its gabled roofs, narrow corridors and dormer windows. Renovated in the 18th century, the palace is today a protected monument under the Archaeology Department. Other attractions here are the beautifully landscaped garden in the palace compound where you have a variety of flora, typical of Kerala, and a newly erected Buddha mandapam, where a recently recovered statue of the Buddha is housed. Other collections at the museum include rare antique bronze sculptures and paintings. ■

Kottayam

Known also as the land of letters, latex and lakes, Kottayam city has a vast network of rivers and canals that empty into the great expanse of the Vembanad Lake, located 160km west of Kottayam. The Kumarakom Bird Sanctuary, 16 km from Kottayam, is situated on the banks of this Vembanad Lake. The sanctuary being a favorite haunt of migratory birds, is a paradise for the ornithologists. The breeding season for the resident wetland birds like Siberian stork, cormorants, darter, white ibis, egret, heron and teal is between June and August while November and May is the season for migratory birds like pin tailed duck, garganey teal, spotted bill duck, osprey, marsh harrier and steppey eagle.

MUST VISIT:

Kallara

Situated about 20 km north-west of Kottayam town, Kallara is a scenic village attracts tourists for its amazing view of the backwaters of Ezhumanthuruthu, the ancient temples and churches, the crisscrossing canals and the paddy fields. The waterways, once used for the transportation of goods from Alappuzha to Kaduthuruthy, now connect the village to other places of tourist importance like Kumarakom, in the south. A houseboat journey to the place is a great way to enjoy the scenic beauty on either banks of the lake. Owing to its emergence as a tourist spot, hotels and spas have also been set up to facilitate the growth of the industry.

Ilaveezhaponchira:

Skirting the Kottayam district are the beautiful valleys of Ilaveezhaponchira spread over thousands of acres. This pack of delightful picnic spots located in the midst of beautiful hillocks near Kanjar, is also ideal for trekking. During the monsoons, when the valley fills up to form a scenic lake, this place unveils yet another beautiful slice of nature. Ilaveezhaponchira means 'valley where leaves don't fall' and is named so because the place has no trees.

Aruvikkuzhi waterfalls:

A long 2 Kms mud path from the Kumarakom village leads one to the famous Aruvikkuzhi waterfalls which is a popular sightseeing spot in Kerala. Kumarakom, a small village in Kottayam District, South Kerala, is known even outside the boundaries of India for its ambient backwaters and authentic house boats. The green backdrop of rubber plantations all around is complemented by the sparkle of meandering streams. Various migratory birds fly over nearby plantations as well as wetlands making it an aesthetic pleasure. At Aruvikkuzhi, the water cascades down from a rocky terrain about 100 ft high. The refreshingly scenic surrounding is, naturally, just ideal for picnics. 📍

Idukki

Idukki is the second largest district in the Kerala state and is a landlocked region, predominantly populated by native tribes and has an astonishing 50 percent of its total area covered by forests. It offers diverse attractions like wildlife sanctuaries, hill stations, spice plantations, tours, mountain treks, elephant rides and what not. Trekking trails in the district and the spectacular landscape which is dotted with rich flora and fauna make it a dream destination for the nature lovers. Idukki is also known as the Spice Garden of Kerala.

Thekkady

The Thekkady forest, one of the finest wildlife reserves in the country spread over the entire district, instantly conjures up images of elephants, unending chains of hills and spice scented plantations. Along with that, the Periyar Wildlife Sanctuary, snuggled in the Western Ghats, is one of the world's richest biodiversity spots and it is also noted for its geo morphology and the diversity of wildlife. This is the only sanctuary in the country where you get the unique experience of watching wildlife at close quarters from the safety of a boat. Vandiperiyar, on the other hand, has the distinction of the Periyar River flowing through the centre of the town, nourishing its vast tea, coffee and pepper plantations, making it home to a number of tea factories. Pullumedu, just 43 km from Thekkady, is a hill town on the banks of the Periyar, which offers a stunning view of the hills draped in lush greenery.

Munnar

Munnar is situated at the confluence of three mountain streams - Mudrapuzha, Nallathanni and Kundala. 1,600 m above sea level, this hill station was once the summer resort of the erstwhile British Government in South India. Sprawling tea plantations, picture-book towns, winding lanes and holiday facilities make this a popular resort town. Among the exotic flora found in the forests and grasslands here is the Neelakurinji. This flower which bathes the hills in blue once in every twelve years, will bloom next in 2018. Munnar also has the highest peak in South India, Anamudi, which towers over 2,695 m. Anamudi is an ideal spot for trekking.

MUST VISIT:

Chinnar Wildlife Sanctuary:

Chinnar, located in the rain shadow area of the Western Ghats, is known widely as the habitat for the endangered Giant Grizzled Squirrel of India., Unlike other sanctuaries in Kerala, Chinnar gets only less than two months of rain every year. An extensive Sandalwood forest nearby is an added attraction of this place. This is also an ideal place for watching herds of gaur and elephants amble past. As one travels from Karimuthi to Chinnar, elephants, spotted deer, sambar, hanuman langur and even peacocks can be spotted on either side of the road.

Idukki Wildlife Sanctuary:

Situated at an altitude of 450-748 m above sea level, this Idukki sanctuary occupies the forest land between the Cheruthoni and Periyar Rivers and is one of the most naturally rich areas of Kerala. There is a scenic lake around the sanctuary, covered by an enchanting canopy of tropical ever-green and deciduous trees, which offer boat rides. Elephants, bison, sambar deer, wild dogs, jungle cats, tiger, wild boar etc. are commonly seen here apart from the various species of snakes including cobra, viper, kraits and numerous non-poisonous ones. Birds include grey jungle fowl, Malabar grey hornbill, several species of woodpeckers, bulbuls, flycatchers, etc. This sanctuary lies adjacent to the world renowned Idukki Arch Dam.

Idukki Arch Dam:

A technological marvel, this magnificent parabolic structure is the world's second and Asia's first arch dam, constructed across the Kuravan and Kurathi Hills. With its 550 ft high and 650 ft width, the Idukki Arch dam lies close to the Cheruthoni barrage. To its west is the Kulamavu Dam. The Idukki Wildlife Sanctuary is located close by.

Vagamon:

Vagamon is a paradisiacal verdant spot in Kerala with green grassy hills, lush velvet lawns and cool mountain air. Like a lot of other beautiful things in life, Vagamon too is a must to experience for all. What you've got to do is simply get yourself some means of transport, head straight for Idukki district and then on to Vagamon. Once there, try taking off your shoes, closing your eyes and just listening to Vagamon. And when you're through with the mystic getting to know session, you could take a trek across the chain of three hills - the Thangal hill, the Murugan hill and the Kurisumala, important for Muslims, Hindus and Christians respectively.

Mattu Petty

Mattu Petty is acclaimed for its highly specialized dairy farm. The Mattu Petty Dam, just a short distance from the farm, is a lovely picnic spot while the Kundala Tea Plantations and the Kundala Lake are the two other attractions of the place.

Rajamala Hills

The famous Rajamala Hills is the natural habitat of the Nilgiri Tahr, an endangered species and you can find half of the world population of the rare mountain goat here. The Eravikulam National Park is the home of the Nilgiri Tahr and is a great place to trek. The Rajamala Hills is the only place in Kerala which has a natural growth of sandalwood trees. The sandalwood factory of the Forest Department, the ancient caves (muniyaras) with murals and relics from the Neolithic Age and the children's park spread across a hectare of land are of great interest to tourists, both local and foreign.

Peermedu

Peermedu is a famous plantation town that takes its name from Peer Mohamed, a Sufi saint and a close associate of the erstwhile royal family of Travancore. Wide vistas of tea, cardamom, rubber and coffee plantations interspersed with silver cascades, sculptural rocks, meadows and mist-cloaked hilltops make the place an unforgettable experience. Peermedu is located along the coast of the Arabian Sea. ■

Kochi

In the present day Cochin is technically divided into two parts, Kochi and Ernakulam respectively. The collective of coastal margin and the island forms Kochi and the mainland is Ernakulam. Once a major centre of world trade and commerce, Kochi is today renowned as the 'Queen of the Arabian Sea'. The British, Arabs, Chinese, Portuguese and the Dutch have all come to its shores in search of spices and sandalwood.

Fort Kochi

Fort Kochi is an obscure fishing village which went on to become the first European township in the country and it has indeed come a long way. You could catch the remnants of the colonial infusion in the form of architectural masterstrokes. The Pierce Leslie Bungalow is a charming mansion which served as the office of the coffee merchants, Peirce, Leslie & Co from 1862.

Mattancherry

Mattancherry is one place in Kerala where you can visit the Dutch Palace built by the Portuguese in 1557 and presented to Raja Veera Kerala Varma of Cochin. Built in 1865, the Hill Palace Museum in Thripunithura was the official residence of the erstwhile Cochin Royal Family. A stroll through the nice Cherai Beach in the north end of Vypeen Island can indeed transport you to the glorious days of Indian history.

Thattekkad Bird Sanctuary

The sanctuary is noted for its indigenous birds like the Malabar grey hornbill, frog moth and rose billed roller. The Thattekkad Bird Sanctuary discovered by the renowned ornithologist Dr Salim Ali, is nestled in the evergreen forest. Built in 1744 by the Dutch and later taken over by the British, the Bolgatty Island is also a famous sight known for the palace of the same name.

MUST VISIT:

Kodanad:

The specialty of this city is the band of elephants which are an integral part of Indian mythology and culture. In God's Own Country, elephants are often referred to as the sons of the 'Sahya'

(the Western Ghats). Elephants are the most ornamental and auspicious animals here. Rows of majestically caparisoned elephants, replete with colourful silken parasols form the most spectacular part of any event in Kerala. Kodanad, set on the Southern banks of the Periyar River amid the beautiful high ranges near Perumbavoor is one of the largest elephant training centres in Kerala. Since the introduction of a ban on elephant capture, Kodanad has been reduced to a training centre. The famous Malayattoor Church is just nearby.

Museum of Kerala History:

The first thing that catches your eye as you enter the famous Museum of Kerala History at Edapally, near Kalamassery, is a huge statue of Sage Parasurama, who is believed to have created Kerala by reclaiming land from the seas. The museum is full of statues, paintings, and sculptures that unravel for you the history of Kerala - from the Neolithic period to the modern age.

Vypeen and Willingdon island tourism:

Vypeen is an island sprawling over an area of more than 25 kilometres. Before the advent of the Portuguese in the 16th century, the island was inhabited by a small indigenous fishing community. They set up many churches including the famous Church of Our Lady of Hope. The Pallipuram Fort was also built by the Portuguese in this island. According to recent research, the Portuguese legacy is still visible in the dialect of a few Anglo-Indians in Vypeen. They use the earliest forms of Creole (a mixture of two-three languages) of the Portuguese language although the grammar is influenced by Malayalam. Under the influence of the Portuguese, Vypeen began to develop and is now one of the islands with the highest density of population. Today, the Goshree Bridge connects the island to the city of Kochi whereas earlier one had to be ferried to and fro. Njarakkal is the business centre of Vypeen. There are many unexplored spots in the island that are of huge interest to the tourists. The lighthouse at Ochanthuruthu, with its adjacent beach, is one of them.

Marine Drive:

Marine Drive in Kochi, a popular tourist destination and a favourite local hangout, is a scenic stretch that offers a spectacular view of the backwaters and the Kochi Harbour. Shopping malls, cinema halls, restaurants, cafés and supermarkets line the drive. The Rainbow Bridge and the International Tourism Boat Jetty Complex are other attractions here.

Kaladi:

Kaladi is famous as the birthplace of Adi Sankaracharya, the great Advaita philosopher of the 8th century. Temples dedicated to Sri Sankara, Sarada Devi, Sri Krishna and Sri Ramakrishna add to the sanctity of the destination. A place called Crocodile Ghat is where Sri Sankara took his vows of renunciation. According to legends, a crocodile caught hold of him and refused to release him until Sankara's mother Aryamba permitted him to accept Sanyas (renunciation). ▮

Thrissur

Thrissur, the cultural capital of Kerala, is synonymous with the world renowned and amazing Pooram Festival. It is the abode of Kerala's culture and arts and also houses Kerala Kalamandalam, Sahitya Academy and Sangeetha Nataka Academy. Thirappally and Vazhachal are respectively the two most famous waterfalls in the state. The city's main attractions are the art and archaeological museums, Thrissur zoo, Vilangankunnu and Shakthan Thampuran Palace. The temples of Vadakkunnathan, Paramekkavu and Thiruvampadi are also immensely significant.

Thrissur also has the nick name 'The Land of Poorams' because of its world famous Pooram festival.

Kerala Kalamandalam

Kerala Kalamandalam is renowned all over the world for its Kathakali training centre. This music and dance academy, founded by the famous poet Vallathol Narayana Menon, imparts training in Kathakali, Mohiniyattom, Thullal and other art forms of Kerala. You can witness the classes conducted here through the tourism package and of course learn a great deal about performing arts.

Punnathoor Elephant Sanctuary and Muzris

The historically significant Punnathoor Elephant Sanctuary was once a palace ground which is now home to almost 60 temple elephants. The ancient port city of Muzris was once a major centre for trade and commerce and was also the gateway to various religions like Christianity, Judaism, and Islam among others. It was a thriving link in the Indo Roman trade during the 1st century BC and merchants with different cultures and beliefs were operating from this port. Gold coins, topaz, coral, copper, glass, wine and wheat were imported from abroad while pearl, diamonds, sapphire, ivory, silk, spices and other precious stones were exported from the coast.

Guruvayoor

Guruvayoor is one of the most sacred and important pilgrimage centres in the state. The main attraction here is the Sree Krishna Temple which is hailed as the Dwaraka of the South. This historic temple is shrouded in mystery and many stories regarding the construction of the temple still exist today.

PeechiVazhani Wildlife Sanctuary
The PeechiVazhani Wildlife Sanctuary, established in 1958, is one of the oldest wildlife reserves in the state. It was formed around the twin reservoirs of Peechi and Vazhani, and the sanctuary also boasts of nearly 176 species of birds and harbours all the major animals found in the country.

MUST VISIT:

Chavakkad Beach:

The Chavakkad, one of the best beaches along the West coast with coconut bordered sea-shore, is a pleasing view of rare natural beauty enticed. The fringed shadow of coconut lagoons and the mesmerizing atmosphere make the Chavakkad Beach a top vacation spot. It is the place where the sea confluences with a river and this meeting of the sea with the river is known as Azhimokam. The famous mural paintings are another fascinating aspect of the place.

Archaeological Museum:

The Archaeological Museum situated in the city of Thrissur, has been preserved with great care, as these are made of highly vulnerable dried palm leaves. The museum also stores a large number of artefacts, which were found from the jungles of Thrissur and Wayanad district. Of the major possessions of the Archaeological museum is a rare assortment of 'Veerakallu' or stone engravings and carvings, along with an atypical collection of megalithic weapons which were excavated from the forests of Wayanad and Thrissur. The collection also includes a gigantic anthology of Stone Age tools, megalithic wares and pottery, russet coated wares, urn burials and even items excavated from north Indian civilizations like the Harappa and Indus Valley Civilization.

Chimmini Wildlife Sanctuary:

While the dense tropical forests of Chimmini (Chimmony) shelter diverse flora and fauna, the dam across the River offers a breathtaking view. The Chimmini Wildlife sanctuary, established in 1984, is located in the Mukundapuram Taluk of Thrissur district. The sanctuary is endowed with scenic beauty beyond compare. The forest department regularly organises trekking and bamboo rafting programmes in and around the sanctuary. But the best of all experiences is the Moonlight Sonata, which involves rafting on full moon nights.

Kuthampully Handloom Village:

The Kuthampully Handloom village is well known for its kasavu handloom weaving since the Kuthampully saris are a hot favourite among women folk not only in Kerala, but also in other parts of the country. The Kuthampully Handloom Industrial Cooperative Society was registered in Kuthampully village, on the banks of the legendary Bharathapuzha, in the Thiruvilwamala Panchayat, in the year 1972. They followed the traditional path in the early days and the different kinds of Indian clothings like the kasavu double dhoti, veshti and set mundu were made popular by them. Later on, embroidery techniques were deftly applied on traditional Kuthampully sarees to produce designer ones and thus give them a modern look and feel. 📌

Palakkad

Palakkad is the dreamy land of misty monuments with its ever green tropical forests, dams, wild life sanctuaries, rivers, rare birds and animals, historical buildings, places of worship and traditional Ayurvedic treatment centers. It has tremendous scope and immense potential to become one of the best places for tourism in India. The district is gifted with the beauty of virgin and verdant Nelliampathy hills, the precious and unique silent valley National Park, the famous Parambikulam Wildlife Sanctuary, Attappady hills and more than half a dozen dams like Malampuzha, Mangalam, Pothundi, Kanjirapuzha, Siruvani and Parambikulam. Palakkad District has the nick names 'The Rice Bowl of Kerala' and 'The Land of Palm Trees'.

MUST VISIT: Nelliampathy:

From the town of Nenmara in Palakkad district, the cloud-caressed peaks of the majestic Nelliampathy hill ranges are indeed a sight to behold. There are about 10 hairpin bends that have to be negotiated on the way to Nelliampathy. The Pothundy Dam is a picturesque locale with facilities for boating and is a nice option as a picnic spot. As one reaches to some extent of the Nelliampathy, there are viewpoints from where the vast stretches of Palakkad district are visible with its extensive paddy fields forming a verdant carpet. It also offers a splendid view of the Palakkad Gap, which is a geographical phenomenon in the Western Ghat formation in this region.

Malampuzha Dam & Garden:
Malampuzha, a little township on the foothills of the Western Ghats, takes its name from the River Malampuzha and is a lush green town, which has a major tourist attraction for its trekking trails and the large irrigation dam. Boating facilities are available on the lake. Malampuzha garden is the most attractive place in the town because of the beautiful rock garden, the fish-shaped aquarium, the snake park, the ropeway which takes you on an aerial tour of the park and the gigantic Yakshi (an enchantress) sculptured by Kanai Kunhiraman, a renowned sculptor of Kerala. The most interesting feature of the rock garden is that the whole place is made of unwanted and broken pieces of bangles, tiles, used plastic cans, tins and other waste materials. The garden is a master work of the world famous sculptor Padmasree Neck Chand Saini.

Tipu's Fort

The Tipu's Fort, also known as the Palakkad Fort, stands in the heart of Palakkad town and was constructed in 1766 AD. It is today a protected monument under the Archaeological Survey of India. The fort was built by Hyder Ali (1717 - 1782), the emperor of Mysore province, supposedly to facilitate communication between both sides of the Western Ghats (Coimbatore and the West Coast). He had captured the Malabar and Kochi regions which came under the West Coast area. His son Tipu Sultan (1750 - 1799), a warrior as well as a linguist, was known as the 'Tiger of Mysore'. In 1784, after an eleven-day siege, the fort was captured by the British under Colonel Fullerton. Though it later fell into the hands of the troops of the Kozhikode Zamorin, it was recaptured by the British in 1790. Tipu Sultan lost his life in 1799 in an encounter with the British and the fort later came to be known after his name.

Attappady:

Attappady is situated on the north-eastern side of Palakkad district and spreads over an area of 745 sq km. The grandiloquence of this great symphony of forests, rivers and mountains is awe inspiring. The tribals worship the mountain peak 'Malleeswaran' as a huge 'Siva-linga' (the Linga is the venerated image of Lord Siva) and the Sivarathri celebration at the Malleeswaran or Malleeswaram temple is probably the most important festival celebrated by the tribals. The Malleeswaran peak and the river Bhavani have a tremendous influence on the lives of the tribals. The highland terrains are mostly fed by the tributaries of the river Cauvery (Kaveri). 📍

Malappuram

Malappuram, the historically famous centre of Hindu-Vedic learning and Islamic philosophy, is enriched by the three great rivers- the Chaliyar, the Kadalundi and the Bharathapuzha and the district has a rich and eventful history. The temples and mosques here are well known for their spectacular festivals. The Padinjarekkara Beach is located only 45 km from Malappuram at the end of the Tipu Sultan Road near Ponnani. The beach is also quite famous for bird watching as various migratory birds are often spotted here. Kozhikode got the name the 'City of Spices' for its role as the major trading point of Indian spices during the Middle Ages.

Nilambur

Nilambur, situated on the banks of the Chaliyar River, is noted for its tribal settlements, vast rain forests, waterfalls and extensive plantations of teakwood, rosewood, mahogany and bamboo.

The forested land is also well known for Canoli's Plot, the oldest teak plantation in the world. The Kumbham Handicrafts Village in Aruvacode, Nilambur, is where the Kumbharan community lives, engaged in pottery and handicrafts. The Nilambur Kovilakam was the royal residence of the local rulers and is famed for beautiful frescoes and artwork in wood. The Nedumkayam Rainforest, just 15 km from Nilambur, is one of the most beautiful and dense forests in the state with a splendid variety of flora and fauna and also serves as an important part of the Nilgiri Biosphere Reserve.

MUST VISIT: Thunchan Memorial:

This is the famous birth place of Thunchath Ezhuthachan, the father of the Malayalam language. On Vijayadasami Day, many people come here for vidyarambham, the ceremony wherein little children are initiated into learning. The iron stylus with which Ezhuthachan wrote his texts on palm leaves and the ancient kanjira tree under which he composed his poems are treasured exhibits here.

Kottakkal:

Kottakkal is a small town which is home to the famed Kottakkal Arya Vaidyasala, one of the pioneering institutions of Ayurveda, the traditional system of health and medicine in Kerala. Founded in 1902 by Vaidyaratnam P. S. Warriar, Kottakkal Arya Vaidyasala has branches all over the State as well as in Delhi and Chennai. One of the best Ayurvedic centres in the State, the Arya Vaidyasala runs an Ayurvedic research centre, a nursing home and a hospital. The chief physician can be consulted only by appointment made at least 10 days in advance.

Thirunavaya:

Situated on the banks of the River Bharathapuzha, Thirunavaya was one of the venues for Mamangam, a grand assembly of the rulers of Kerala, held once every 12 years. This extravagant festival was conducted for the last time in 1766. Today, Thirunavaya, situated just 8 km south of Tirur in Malappuram district, is the venue for the annual Sarvodaya Mela. The Thirunavaya Navamukunda Temple is also a famous pilgrim centre. During Karkidakavavu, people flock at the banks of River Bharathapuzha here, to perform the pithrukriya for the departed souls. ■

Wayanad

Wayanad is one of the few districts in Kerala that has been able to retain its pristine nature. The prehistoric engravings discovered in the Edakkal Caves and around Ambukuthymala bear testimony to the pre-historic culture in Kerala dating back to the Mesolithic Age. Wayanad is a confluence of wilderness, history and culture and is located in the southern tip of the magnificent Deccan plateau. Waynad has the nick name 'God's Own District'.

Edakkal Caves

Located some 12 km from Sulthan Bathery, at a height of about 1000 m on Ambukuthymala near Ambalavayal, the Edakkal Caves shelter the nature's representations on the cave walls which were made by the Neolithic Celts and were first identified by a British man during a hunting trip. The caves can be reached only after a kilometre-long trek from Edakkal and the wall arts found in the caves have caught the attention of archaeologists across the world.

Muthanga Wildlife Sanctuary

Muthanga Wildlife Sanctuary, located 15 km from Sulthan Bathery and established in 1973, is contiguous to the protected area network of Nagarhole and Bandipur of Karnataka on the south east. and Mudumalai of Tamil Nadu on the southeast. Rich in biodiversity, it is an integral part of Nilgiri Biosphere Reserve and the management of the sanctuary lays emphasis on the scientific conservation along with due consideration for the general lifestyle of the tribals and others who live in and around the forest region. The sanctuary has a large population of pachyderms and has been declared as a Project Elephant Site. The important fauna found here include leopard, gaur, sambar, tigers, birds, butterflies and even some species of insects that can be spotted here in large numbers.

MUST VISIT:

Banasura Sagar Dam:

Located 25 km northeast of Kalpetta and considered to be the largest earth dam in India, Banasura Sagar Dam draws a large number of tourists every year.

Kuruwadweep:

Located 45 km northwest of Sulthan Bathery, this 950-acre uninhabited island on the eastward bound Kabani River is an ideal picnic spot.

Tholpetty Wildlife Sanctuary:

Located 25 km east of Mananthavady, the Tholpetty wildlife sanctuary has a large variety of animals but visitors are restricted to the outer zone only. |

Kannur

Kannur is the cradle of a colourful folk art like Theyyam which memorizes viewers. The Muzhappilangad Beach is located 15 km from Kannur and 8 km from Thalassery. It is perhaps the only drive-in beach in the state where you can zoom around. St Angelo's Fort is just 3 km from Kannur and is a seafront laterite fort constructed in 1505 AD by the first Portuguese Viceroy, Don Francisco De Alemeda, with the consent of the then ruling Kolathiri Raja. The fort was also one of the most important military centres of the British in the Malabar Coast. It even offers a fascinating view of the Mappila Bay Fishing Harbour as well.

Dharmadom Island

The Dharmadom Island is located almost 100 meters away from the mainland at Dharmadom and is approximately 5 km from Thalassery. This uninhabited island, covered with coconut palms and dense bushes, is situated beyond the confluence of the Anjarakandy and Thalassery rivers.

MUST VISIT:

Aralam Wildlife Sanctuary:

The Aralam wildlife sanctuary, located 45 km east of Kannur, is home to a wide variety of flora and fauna. The sanctuary, frequented by nature lovers, sprawls over an area of 55 sq. km on the western slopes of the Western Ghats. Established in 1984, the sanctuary is administered by the Wayanad division and is headquartered at Iritty.

Thalassery Fort:

Located 22 km from the land of the exotic art form of Theyyam, in the Northern district of Kannur, is the small town of Thalassery. In this town, stands an imposing historical monument - the Thalassery Fort. The East India Company, which had established its settlement on the Malabar Coast in 1683, had built the monument as a testimonial of their colonial imperialism in 1703. The fort was once the nucleus of Thalassery development. The imposing square fort has massive walls, huge, intricately carved doors and secret tunnels to the sea. All in all, it is the perfect setting to get an authentic taste of some local history and heritage.

Arakkal Kettu Museum:

Arakkal Kettu was the residence of the former Arakkal Ali Rajas, the only Muslim royal family of Kerala. Protected by the Archaeological and Tourism Department of India, this palace complex is today a museum. The Arakkal Kettu Museum house is, in fact, a splendid display of numerous artefacts and heirlooms belonging to the Rajas. **!

Kasaragod

Kasaragod district is one of the rare districts in India which houses as many as 7 different languages (excluding dialects and tribal languages), with each spoken by a substantial number of dialects. Malayalam is the administrative language of Kasaragod. Kannada is additional language after Malayalam. Tulu is also widely spoken language north of Kasaragod and interiors adjoining Dakshina Kannada district. This City is world-renowned for its choir and handloom industries. The northern most districts in the state have a 293-km long coastline. This serene and tranquil place is famously known as the 'land of gods' for its splendor of sea-kissed forts, majestic hills, rivers and delightful beaches. This is the place where the state's largest and the best preserved Bekal Fort is situated.

Bekal Fort

Built in the 17th century, Bekal Fort is located some 16 km south of Kasaragod, on the National Highway. This imposing, circular structure, made of laterite, rises to the height of 130 ft and stands on a 35-acre headland, running into the Arabian Sea. An observation tower with peepholes, an ancient Hanuman Temple with stucco images of gods on its walls, an ancient mosque, said to be built by Tipu Sultan, a sea bastion and an underground passage are some of the captivating spots of the fort.

MUST VISIT:

Ranipuram Hills:

Ranipuram is famous for its trekking trails and varied vegetation that include evergreen shola woods, monsoon forests and grasslands. This area was formerly known as Madathumala. The extensive forests of Madathumala merge with the forests of Karnataka. Ranipuram in its natural beauty is comparable to Ooty. Wild elephants can be seen wandering along the mountains tops.

Anandashram

Anandashram is an internationally renowned spiritual centre founded by Swami Ramdas in 1931 at Kanhangad, in Kasaragod district. The centre offers a quiet and peaceful ambience suited for meditation and spiritual studies.

Kottapuram

At Kottapuram one can just experience heaven with the refreshing stroll alongside the vast backwater stretches or an exhilarating sun set in the evening. Or else, ride a country boat, try fishing skills, or hop into a majestic houseboat and relax in the cool breeze to cruise the length and breadth of these palm-fringed backwaters.

Thaikadappuram Beach:

The Thaikadappuram Beach is near Nileshwaram, only 40 km south of Kasaragod and is famous for the rare Olive Ridley Turtles that visit during the rainy season to lay eggs. Activists of Neythal, a non-governmental organisation, run an Olive Ridley breeding centre here. September to January is the best time to visit the beach.

Swaying palms, pepper vines,
floating houses, great backwaters,
ABAD resorts.

A few of the things you see all around Kerala.

There are some things you take for granted in God's own country. Lush greenery, spice gardens, fish curry & rice, a tradition of Ayurveda, centuries old dance forms & a culture steeped in diversity. Rated by National Geographic as one of the ten paradises of the world, this is a land where travellers discover themselves.

What better way to see this fabled land than with someone who has been playing host to travellers for the last 35 years. After all, we have resorts across the length and breadth of Kerala. With grand structures housing tastefully done rooms in the most picturesque locations, we show you Kerala, the Malayalee way.

Location: Cochin

Located on the banks of the River Periyar, our Château has long river views and interior/exterior spaces seamlessly blending into one another. The architectural style is inspired by the Indo - Dutch language of Kerala Architecture that is seen all over Kochi region -notably the historic Paliyam Palace linked to the ancient kingdom of Kochi and one the famous buildings in the vicinity. This allows a double storeyed structure with luxuriant colonnaded verandahs all around.

Located on 1.5 acres of land with 150 meters of riverfront, every room enjoys long views of Kerala's largest and longest river, the perennial Periyar which is the state's source for not just drinking water and hydroelectric power, but an inspiration for many a poet and writer. At the site of our Château, the Periyar is just a few km from the sea, mingling with backwater canals and lagoons with the untainted rural Kerala landscape on its banks.

Neelambari is a luxurious resort on the banks of Karuvannur puzha (river). It is constructed in authentic Kerala style and evokes grandeur and tradition. The central building consists of a classical performance arena (Koothambalam) and a traditional courtyard (Nalukettu). The cottages are luxurious with their own private balconies, spacious and clean bathrooms and well appointed bedrooms (each unit has a space of more than 75 sqm). Neelambari is situated in a very serene atmosphere right on the bank of a river, in a quiet, verdant village in central Kerala. There are several natural and historical attractions in the vicinity. Despite its rural charm, the facility is well connected, being less than an hour drive from Cochin International Airport. It is also easily accessible by rail and road and the nearest city is Thrissur, just 13 kms away. The facility offers authentic Ayurveda treatment, Yoga lessons, nature and village tourism, kayak and traditional boat trips in the river as well as traditional cultural performances in its Koothambalam.

TEA HARVESTER A BOUTIQUE RESORT

www.teaharvestermunnar.com

STALLNo:

C-52

Location: Munnar

Tea Harvester is a stylish boutique resort for guests seeking to get away from often trodden pathways and explore authentic localized experiences. A dirt path winds through tea bushes to arrive at the Chungath Estate in Chithirapuram Division, a working tea plantation that once belonged to a local chieftain. Today it is contiguous to the Pallivasal Tea Estate.

Our theme of the property is "Experience the life of an English planter" here. Re-live the charm of an era that has passed into the mist of history – a classical colonial memory. Unwind engaging with a delightful range of activities on offer. Awake daily to the call of a Malabar Whistling Thrush.

Fringed by a cardamom plantation at one end and tea bushes on the other, the white exterior of the property displays certain aspects reminiscent of colonial era architecture. Melding gracefully with sloping roofs that are an intrinsic part of vernacular design, a little fountain, its reservoir filled with lotuses, welcomes guests.

When it came to tourism and hospitality, we ended with the idea of 'Never Before Holidays' since we provide an abundance of never before experiences to our beloved guests. We are specialized in exploring the lifestyle, people and are also the best at introducing some rarest of the cultures, the unknown historical and religious significance of a particular destination to the whole world since all of them would be an exquisite experience to any travel enthusiast. Such activities can produce some job opportunities for the locals since they must be the best at producing valuable handi-crafts, that are famous in that location and can be sold to the guests visiting there. We can also recruit locals as the tour guides who are good at communicating with the guests. We are also focused on the environmental, economical, and socio-cultural activities of any location and lending our maximum to promote responsible tourism as well as sustainable tourism there. Last but not least NB4 explores the maximum possibility and popularity of India's own Ayurveda in the tourism sector and makes it one of the most demanding aspects of the same.

TRAVEL MEDIA

FrontEnd MEDIA is a National Award winning Global Publication venture promoted by Media professionals from India and abroad. FrontEnd MEDIA is devoted to bring out information-packed and quality content-driven publications, magazines, exclusive handbooks and coffee table books. After three successful associations with Kerala Tourism Department, FrontEnd MEDIA is now all set to embark on an ambitious venture, "TRAVEL EYE", an international B2B & B2C Travel Digital and Print Magazine, which focuses primarily on tourism and travel trade across the Globe. FrontEnd Media has laid its hands to promote untold tourism destinations across the nation through the upcoming travel marts in India and abroad.

Fresh Ball Grapes

No Added Colors & Preservatives

Our story is not unique, yet had been arduous. For us, friends are our first priority. As a company from the beverage sector, our aim is to provide the best quality juice for our friends. This can be done only with ardent passion and unwavering dedication.

Maintaining the natural aroma of ball grape in juice has been the most challenging part of the whole ordeal. We have put our best efforts to maintain the quality of our product.

Today, iYo ball grapes juice is the most demanded beverage in the region
